

VVhereas Richard Widdowes of London Goldsmith hath paid in readie monie to Sir Thomas Smith knight, Treasurer of Virginia, the somme of twenty and five hundred : for his aduentures towards the said voyage.
It is agreed, that for the same, he the said Richard Widdowes his heires, executors, administrators or assignes, shall haue razably according to his aduenture, his full part of all such lands, tenements and hereditaments, as shall from time to time be there recouered, planted, and inhabited. And of such Mines and Mineralles of Golde, Siluer, & other mettals or treasure, Pearles, Precious stones, or any kinde of wares or Marchandiz-es, commodities or profits whatsoever, which shall be obtray-ned or gotten in the said voyage, according to the porcion of money by him employed to that vse, in as ample maner as any other Aduenturer therein shall receiue for the like somme.
Written this 22th of Marche Anno Domini. 1608.

• Zuosung 77 30 a 1701